

Business Analytics Report 2025

Revenue Overview

The company reported a total revenue of $5 million in Q1 2025. The electronics division contributed the highest share with $2 million, followed by clothing at $1.5 million.

Regional Performance

The West region showed the best performance with a 25% growth in sales. The East region followed with 18% growth, while the South region had the lowest growth at 5%.

Top Products

The top selling products were smartphones, laptops, and wireless headphones. Smartphones alone accounted for 40% of total sales.

Challenges

The main challenges faced by the company included supply chain delays, increased competition, and rising operational costs.

Future Strategy

The company plans to expand into new markets, improve logistics, and invest in AI-driven analytics to improve decision making.